Project Title: Rebel Without a Cause Microsite

This site will be five individual pages (including the home page) with a navigation menu most likely either on the left or the right.

- Home page - essentially a cover page that introduces the subject and advertises the movie, by possibly having external links to where you may buy the movie.
- Plot - the summarized plotline of the movie, with screencaps and/or GIFs interspersed throughout.
- Production - how the film was first pitched, how it was made, any other context behind its casting and production value.
- In popular culture - the legacy of the film and its cast.
- Sources - a page for the sources of all the images, the information, and any other necessary credits.
